

Kitsilano Neighbourhood House | Good Neighbours Award

The Good Neighbours Awards (GNA) were developed in 1984 to acknowledge the valuable work of volunteers and to reflect the Association of Neighbourhood Houses of BC's commitment to making neighbourhoods better places in which to live.

Nominations for the Good Neighbour Awards can be made by Kits House staff or by Kits House volunteers in three categories:

NEIGHBOURHOOD HOUSE AWARD

The Neighbourhood House Award recognizes and celebrates a Kits House volunteer who has made a significant contribution to their Neighbourhood House through their support of local activities.

Neighbourhood House award nominees are current, or previous Kitsilano Neighbourhood House volunteers who have:

- Demonstrated long-standing community leadership
- Created, developed, and/or implemented programs or projects that benefit community life
- Made a significant and lasting contribution
- Generously committed their time, talent, and energy
- Improved the well-being of families, youth, children, seniors, people with disabilities, multicultural/ethnic groups in the areas of social service and/or health

YOUTH GOOD NEIGHBOUR AWARD

The Youth Good Neighbour Award recognizes and celebrates a youth who has demonstrated commitment to their school, neighbourhood and/or community through volunteer activities.

Youth Good Neighbour award nominees are current, or previous Kitsilano Neighbourhood House Youth volunteers (under the age of 25) who have:

- Demonstrated outstanding community leadership
- Created, developed, and/or implemented programs or projects that benefit neighbourhood life
- Made a significant and lasting contribution to neighbourhood life
- Generously committed their time, talent, and energy
- Has improved the well-being of families, youth, children, seniors, people with disabilities, multicultural/ethnic groups in the areas of social service or health

BUSINESS/ORGANIZATION GOOD NEIGHBOUR AWARD

The Business/Organization Good Neighbour Award acknowledges a local business or organization that has made a significant contribution to the community through their support of neighbourhood house activities.

Business/Organization Good Neighbour award nominees are organizations with a local presence who have:

- Demonstrating long-standing community leadership
- Supported or sponsored programs or projects that benefit the community and neighbourhood life
- Made a significant and lasting contribution to neighbourhood life through support of Neighbourhood House initiatives

The Kits House Awards Committee, composed of KNH staff and volunteers, meet annually to review all nominations and select award recipients
