About the Larry Hnetka Community Builder Award

In honour of the late Larry Hnetka, the Community Builder Award annually recognizes an individual who has made a significant contribution to the health and wellbeing of Vancouver's Westside neighbourhoods. The award recognizes someone who is committed to neighbourhood values of connection, engagement, and neighbourhood involvement.

Nominees for the award must live in Vancouver's Westside, which includes the neighbourhoods of Kitsilano, Dunbar-Southlands, Shaughnessy, Kerrisdale, Arbutus Ridge, West Point Grey & UBC.

What is a Community Builder?

An individual who through action, passion and commitment has created opportunity for community members to come together, create together, and pursue a common goal for the good of all.

If you know a person(s) who fit this description, nominate them for a Larry Hnetka Community Builder Award!
